Synopsis of story	When two small sisters go fishing to the magic pond, they find something much better than a frog or a newt. They find a bog baby. Small and blue with wings like a dragon, the girls decide to make him their secret. I won't tell if you won't. But the bog baby is a wild thing, and when he becomes poorly, the girls decide they must tell their mum. And she tells them the greatest lesson: if you really love something, you have to let it go.	Explore the story of the Great Fire of London through the eyes of Sammy, the street dog, with this brilliant eBook. Sammy awakes to find his hometown of London is on fire and struggles to avoid danger as the flames spread from the bakery on Pudding Lane, destroying the city. A lovely way to engage the children on this historical topic.	Mr Fox is so clever that every evening he creeps down into the valley and helps himself to food from the ghastly farmers. Now the farmers have hatched a plan shoot Mr Fox dead! But, just when they think Mr Fox can't possibly escape, he makes a FANTASTIC plan of his own...	Priya lives in the United States and her family is from India. She feels the magic of the place that her family comes from through her Babi Ba's colourful descriptions of India – from the warm smell of spices to the swish-swish sound of a rustling sari. Together, Priya and Babi Ba make their heritage live on through the traditions that they infuse into their everyday lives.	The clip shows a young girl trying to reach an old man who lives alone in a hut on the moon. There are tears when they finally lock eyes.	Bob has a very important job on the Moon. But who's that in the background making faces at him? Kids will laugh along at this strikingly illustrated tongue-in-cheek tale.	There was once a wide, windswept place, near nowhere and close to forgotten that was filled with all the things that no one wanted. This is where an old man lives who tidies the rubbish and dreams of a better place. With faith, ingenuity and hard work, he transforms a junkyard into a wonderland.
